TO: SERVICE DELIVERY AREA ADMINISTRATORS

SUBJECT: MAKING WELFARE-TO-WORK WORK IN THE WORKFORCE
DEVELOPMENT SYSTEM WORKSHOP

The purpose of this bulletin is to announce an upcoming two-day workshop hosted by Mr. Greg Newton focused on the new Welfare-to-Work program. Topics discussed will include:

- the organizational culture of the welfare system;
- examining the roles of the workforce development and One-Stop systems;
- research on what has been proven to work;
- strategic overview of welfare-to-work requirements;
- post-employment services and retention strategies; and
- providing targeted, responsive services.

The two-day workshop will be held February 4-5, 1998, at:

Red Lion Inn/Doubletree Hotel
6161 Centinela Ave.
Culver City, CA 90231

A block of rooms has been reserved for the workshop available at the State rate of $79.00 per night through January 16, 1998. Complimentary shuttle service is available from LAX on a 24-hour basis. The hotel also offers complimentary parking. Reservations may be made at (310) 649-6566 under "Welfare-to-Work".

All Service Delivery Areas (SDA) are encouraged to send one representative to the workshop, which will provide an opportunity to exchange ideas and share experiences with county welfare directors as well as state staff who are expected to attend. The workshop is provided at no cost. Since room is limited, attendance is restricted to one representative per SDA.

Please complete the attached registration form and fax it to (916) 653-3440 to reserve your spot for the workshop. We're looking forward to seeing you there.

/S/ BILL BURKE

Acting Assistant Deputy Director
